Civic Sunday held in Grange Moor

Last week saw Kirkburton Parish Council's annual Civic Sunday Service and Parade, which this year was held in Grange Moor, the home village of the Chairman, Cllr Cass Whittingham.

It was a beautiful day with the sun shining as the Chairman, the Mayor & Mayoress of Kirklees, Chairmen and Civic Dignitaries from the neighbouring Councils, Kirklees Councillors, past Chairman and members of Kirkburton Parish Council all marched behind the West Yorkshire Fire & Rescue Pipe Band. Lots of the local residents and children came out to listen to the Band and watch the parade, which concluded at St Bartholomew's Church. The Service was taken by the Revd John Whitney and the Kirkheaton Singers provided a musical accompaniment.

Cllr Cass Whittingham, Chairman of Kirkburton Parish Council, said "I was delighted to see the excellent turnout to the Service and would like to thank the Mayor and Mayoress of Kirklees for coming, as well as the Revd John Whitney and the Kirkheaton Singers for the service. I'm also grateful to friends and family, who helped me to host the event and supported me on the day."

The collection will be divided between the Church and the Isaac Nash Trust.
