All Smiles at Shelley as Post Office opens

Kirkburton Parish Council Chairman, Cllr Robert Barraclough, joined in the celebrations today when the new outreach post office opened in Shelley Village Hall. "I'm really pleased that the Parish Council has been able to work with the Post Office and the Community Association to restore the post office services to Shelley. The Parish Council has always supported this idea, so it's great to see it all working out and the village hall providing another important service for the people of this area."

The Parish Council has been working hard over the last few weeks to ensure that the village hall could be used by the post office and the Councillors gave the venture their full support at the meeting last week when the final decision was taken.
